DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 28, 29, 5, 6, 24, 36, 37, 31 and 32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Bourrieres (U.S. Patent 4,878,984 A) for the reasons of record.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 2, 3 and 51 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bourrieres (U.S. Patent 4,878,984 A) as applied to claims 28, 29, 5, 6, 24, 36, 37, 31 and 32 above, and further in view of Goldsworthy et al (U.S. Patent 3,701,489 A) for the reasons of record.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments filed on 08 February 2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

6. Applicant argues (page 9) that the guide assembly (i.e., forks 21a, 21b) of Bourrieres functions in a substantially different way from the guide assembly in the instantly-claimed invention. Examiner responds that a comparison of Figure 3 of Bourrieres and Figure 15 of the instant application shows that the guide assembly of Bourrieres does function in substantially the same way as the guide assembly in the instantly-claimed invention. Furthermore, the terms "generally parallel" and "generally perpendicular" do not mean exactly parallel or exactly perpendicular. Therefore, Bourrieres (or any other reference) does not have to teach planes and/or orientations which are exactly parallel or exactly perpendicular.

7. Applicant argues (pages 10 and 11) that none of the cited references are directed to making catheters. Examiner responds that the aspect of making a catheter is in the preamble of the instant claims (in particular, independent claims 28, 36 and 51), the body of the claims fully set forth all of the limitations of the claimed invention, and the preamble is a statement of purpose or intended use which is not considered a claim limitation and is of no significance to claim construction

(Pitney Bowes, Inc. v. Hewlett-Packard Co., 182 F.3d 1298, 1305, 51 USPQ2d 1161, 1165 (Fed. Cir. 1999)).

Conclusion

8. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
